Criteria regarding eligibility for NRRRI Registration & Membership

(This document annuls all previous documents relating to criteria for NRRRI membership)

The National Register of Reflexologists (Ireland) Ltd. is an autonomous institution and applications for membership can be declined or accepted without explanation at the discretion of the Registrar.

General guidelines for eligibility:

1. Graduates awarded diplomas by NRRRI Accredited School are fully eligible.
2. Applicants awarded diplomas by NRRRI Accredited schools prior to September 2010 are eligible.
3. Graduates with ITEC Level 3 Diploma in Reflexology (QQI Level 5 / FETAC Level 6) including VTCT and CIBTAC are provided their Diploma Course meets our minimum criteria of 150 tutoring hours and completed 40 case studies.
4. Applicants who hold other Diploma in Reflexology than mentioned above, but who have been in professional practice may be admitted on the basis that their Diploma Course meets our criteria (150 tutoring hours / 40 case studies) and proof (e.g. insurance certificate) that they have been in continuous practice for minimum 3 years.
5. Applicants who hold other Diplomas in Reflexology than mentioned above, but have no professional practice experience may be admitted after completing a Refresher Course (to be arranged) with one of the NRRRI Accredited Schools.
6. Discretionary admissions and refusals do not imply accreditation, approval or disapproval of any school or examining body, and do not constitute any precedent.
7. Full membership is available to registered members who are engaged in professional practice, who have provided evidence of current personal insurance, and who engage in the NRRRI Programme of Continuous Professional Development (CPD).
8. Full Membership confers accreditation by private health insurance providers (VHI, Irish Life and LAYA) and a free listing on the NRRRI website for referrals.
9. Associate membership is available to registered members who do not wish to engage in full time professional practice but who like to keep in touch and have an interest in the development of reflexology. Personal insurance and the NRRRI programme of continuous professional development are optional.
10. Student membership is available to all students studying the NRRRI Accredited Diploma Course.
